Information about Social Security Numbers, US Citizenship and Immigration

For everyone that you are applying for, you must provide information about Social Security Numbers (SSNs) and citizenship/immigration status. If you do not want to answer questions about SSNs or citizenship/immigration status, you may choose not to apply. Providing an SSN is required by the Food and Nutrition Act for applicants seeking benefits. We will only use the SSNs you give us to do computer matches and check what you told us with State and Federal Agencies. You must be a United States (U.S.) citizen or an eligible alien and also meet other Food and Nutrition Services rules to get Food and Nutrition Services benefits. We will only contact US Citizenship and Immigration Service (USCIS) to check the immigration status on the household members who give us their immigration documents. If an applicant does not provide this information, they will be ineligible for benefits. By signing this form, it states, under penalty of perjury I have given correct information on the citizenship/alien status of all individuals applied for. Household members must provide their financial information because it is needed to determine eligibility for individuals who are applying. Eligible household members who apply will be able to get benefits even though some people in the household are not applying for benefits. The amount of benefits will depend on the number of people requesting benefits.

Your Signature and Statement of Understanding

I understand that my signature authorizes federal, state, and local officials to contact other persons or organizations to verify the information I have provided. Do not lie or hide information to get benefits that your household should not get. I have given correct information on the citizenship/immigration status of all individuals applied for. If a law enforcement officer requests the address, social security numbers, or photographs in your file to assist in locating fugitive felons or probation/parole violators, the agency must provide this information. I will report lottery and/or gambling winnings in the amount of $4,250 more. I am aware all household members will lose eligibility to receive Food and Nutrition Services.

Any member who intentionally breaks any of the rules, may not be able to get Food and Nutrition Services for one year for the first violation, two years for second the violation, and permanently for third the violation. If a court of law finds you guilty of using or receiving benefits in a transaction involving the sale of a controlled substance, you will not be eligible for benefits for two years for the first violation, and permanently for the second violation. You may also be fined up to $250,000 and/or jailed up to 20 years. If court ordered, you may also be ineligible from the Food and Nutrition Services program for an additional 18 months. If a court finds you guilty of having trafficked benefits for $500 or more, or trading benefits for firearms, ammunition or explosives you will be permanently ineligible for Food and Nutrition Services. If you use your food assistance benefits to buy nonfood items, trade, or sell your benefits, pay on credit accounts, take someone's EBT card without authorization or let someone use yours, you will lose your benefits. If you give false information about your identity or residence in order to get Food and Nutrition Services in more than one place, you will not get Food and Nutrition Services for 10 years. If you have a Food and Nutrition Services claim arise against you, we will give your answers and Social Security Numbers to federal and state agencies, as well as private claims collection agencies, to collect the overpayment. All eligibility procedures are strictly supported by the Food and Nutrition Services policies. The other programs time limits or requirements do not affect your Food and Nutrition Services benefits. Your household may not be denied food assistance because your household has been denied benefits from other programs.

I acknowledge that I have received an explanation of my right to an income deduction for Food and Nutrition Services benefits for any of the following items: Child/adult care expenses, medical expenses, shelter expenses, utility expenses, and operational expenses for self-employment.
