
FINANCIAL ELIGIBILITY REGULATIONS-PLA

REVISED 12/1/23 - CHANGE NO. 13-23

Current Change Notice: 13-23

- III: updated to include the Living Allowance for Ineligible Child/Spouse current amount.

I. FINANCIAL AND RESOURCE RESPONSIBILITY FOR ALL M-AABD and MQB COVERAGE GROUPS

This section provides the policy rules for determining responsibility for individual and couple applicants and beneficiaries when they live in a private living arrangement. In addition, this section provides instructions for how and when to "deem" income and resources from a financially responsible spouse or parent(s) to the spouse or child a/b. Because of a court decision, Division of Health Benefits (DHB) can no longer employ income deeming methodology in MQB eligibility determinations. Accordingly, this section provides instructions on how to use family size budgeting in MQB cases.

II. FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

A. Spouse-for-spouse financial responsibility exists for a spouse who:

1. Is legally married to the a/b,
2. Does not receive SSI, Work First, or CAP and
3. Lives in, or is temporarily absent from the home, or
4. Has lived apart for less than one month.
 - a. Financial responsibility ceases at the beginning of the 2nd month.
 - b. Beginning with the 2nd month, budget them as separate individuals.

B. Parent-for-child financial responsibility exists for a child who:

1. Is under the age of 18,
2. Lives in or is temporarily absent from the home,
3. Has never been married,
4. Has never served in the military,
5. Has not been legally emancipated,
6. Does not receive SSI, Work First, CAP, or IAS, and

7. Is the natural or adopted child of an adult a/b or of an adult a/b's spouse;

UNLESS

8. Either parent(s) receives SSI, AAF, CAP/DA or CAP/MR/DD.

9. Parent for child financial responsibility continues for children who have been out of the parent(s)'s home less than one month:

a. Financial responsibility ceases at the beginning of the 2nd month;

b. Beginning with the 2nd month, budget the child as a separate individual.

10. Parent-for child financial responsibility ends the month after the child turns 18.

C. Children do not have financial responsibility for parents or siblings.

III. MAABD and MQB SSI Budgeting methodology and definitions

The phrase "SSI Budgeting Methodology" means the budgeting methodology that has been employed since January of 1995. Due to the court case which mandated the use Family Size Budgeting in MQB eligibility determinations, it is necessary to distinguish the two forms of budgeting now in use.

Under SSI Budgeting Methodology there are two different methods to calculate income. One way is to lump all of the income of the individual or couple. The second way is to look at the individual and indirectly count or deem income from the ineligible spouse or parent(s). The method employed depends upon whether the a/b is classified as a "Medicaid Individual," a "Medicaid Couple," a "Medicaid Individual with and Ineligible Spouse," or a "Medicaid Child."

Living Allowance for Ineligible Child/ Ineligible Spouse is $472 minus the gross income of the child/spouse.

A. Definitions

To determine the appropriate budgeting method, identify the M-AABD/M-QB a/b as one of the following:

1. Medicaid Individual: A "Medicaid Individual" is an a/b who is:

a. Unmarried and age 18 or older; or

b. Married and living with a spouse who receives AAF, SSI, CAP/DA, or CAP/MR/DD; or

c. Unmarried and under age 18 and living with a parent(s) who receives SSI, AAF, or CAP.

NOTE: If the child lives with both parents and only one of the parents/stepparents receives AAF or SSI, the child is a Medicaid individual.

- d. Unmarried and under age 18 and living outside of their parent(s)'s home; or
 - e. Receiving CAP/CC, CAP/DA, or CAP/MR/DD.
2. Medicaid Couple: A "Medicaid Couple" consists of a/bs who are married and living together, and
 - (1) Who are M-AABD/M-QB Medicaid a/bs and
 - (2) Neither of whom receives CAP/DA or CAP/MR/DD or SSI.
 3. Medicaid Individual with an Ineligible Spouse
 - a. A "Medicaid Individual with an Ineligible Spouse" is an a/b who is married to and living with a spouse who is not an M-AABD/MQB Medicaid beneficiary and does not receive SSI, AAF or CAP.
 - b. "Ineligible" means the spouse is not applying for or receiving M-AABD or M-QB.
 4. Medicaid Child

A "Medicaid Child" is an a/b under the age of 18 who lives with their parent(s) who does (do) not receive SSI, AAF or CAP. They remains a Medicaid Child through the month that they moves out of their parents' home.
 5. Ineligible Child

An unmarried child of the parent from whom income is deemed

B. Methodology

1. If the a/b is a Medicaid Individual

Count the income of the a/b only to determine eligibility.
2. If the a/b is a Medicaid Couple
 - a. Count the total combined income of both spouses.
 - b. If one a/b of the original couple is denied:
 - (1) Prior to the disposition of the other spouse's application, the remaining a/b becomes a Medicaid individual with an ineligible spouse for the entire certification period.

- (2) After the other spouse is approved, the remaining spouse is budgeted as part of a Medicaid couple through the month of denial.
3. If the a/b is a Medicaid Individual with an Ineligible Spouse

Deem income of the ineligible spouse to the a/b (see IV.D. for deeming instructions.).
4. If the a/b is a Medicaid Child

Deem income from the parent(s) to the child (see IV.E for deeming instructions).

IV. INCOME COMPUTATIONS (BASED ON COMPLETION OF DHB'S BUDGET SHEETS)

A. Background

The following section gives instructions for completion of the Budget Sheets. These forms were developed to assist in determining income eligibility and the appropriate aid/program/category. These forms must be used to calculate income for M-AABD/M-QB/M-WD cases.

NOTE: Ineligible Child: In the deeming process (both spouse to spouse and parent to child), there is a provision for deducting a portion of the deemor's income for the needs of "ineligible children." The definition of an ineligible child is: an unmarried child of the parent from whom income is deemed. The child must live in the household and must not receive SSI or AAF and must not be applying for or receiving M-AABD or M-QB. Allow the Living Needs Allowance (see VII.B.) for each ineligible child in the home under age 18 (or, 21 if a student and regularly attends school or college or training designed to prepare him/her for a paying job).

V. MQB Family size budgeting

Because of a court ruling, DHB must determine MQB eligibility based upon “family size,” which includes the a/b, the spouse if there is one, and any dependent children under age 18 living in the home. The decision of the court applies to all MQB classifications. Although MAABD budgeting is not affected, budgeting for dual eligible is impacted by the change in methodology.

System changes are needed to accommodate more MQB maintenance levels and income limits for MAABD and MQB dual eligible. System changes to accommodate the new budgeting methodology cannot be made at this time. However, we must take those steps which are immediately possible to comply with the court ruling.

(V.)

A. Family Size Budgeting Methodology and Applicable Definitions

The new budgeting methodology utilizes “family size” and financial responsibility in place of the SSI budgeting deeming methodology.

1. For an adult a/b, family consists of:
 - a. The a/b;
 - b. Their financially responsible spouse; and
 - c. Any children under age 18 who live in the home for whom their spouse bears financial responsibility (for a discussion of financial responsibility, see II. above).
2. For a blind or disabled child, family consists of:
 - (1) The a/b;
 - (2) Their parent(s); and
 - (3) Any children in the home for whom either of their parent(s) bears financial responsibility (for a discussion of financial responsibility, see II. above).

B. Methodology

1. Compare countable income of the a/b and any family members who are financially responsible for the a/b to the income limit for the applicable family size. Follow procedures in MA-2250, Income, to determine countable income.
2. Continue to use existing resource policy and resource limits as outlined in MA-2230, Financial Resources, and IV. above.

C. Procedure

1. Evaluate for MAABD and MQB-Q eligibility first using SSI budgeting methodology as outlined in III. above.

2. If the a/b is ineligible for MQB-Q using SSI budgeting methodology, evaluate for MQB-Q, MQB-B, and MQB-E eligibility using the family size budgeting methodology. Complete a separate budget sheet (DHB-5008aAdult Budget Sheet) for each budgeting methodology employed. See V.D. for instructions on completing the DHB-a, Adult Budget Sheet. See VII. for income levels.

Note: There is no need to apply Family Size budgeting to a Medicaid couple with no children.

3. If the a/b is determined eligible for MQB using the family size budgeting methodology, enter the applicable family size in the “Needs Unit” field on the DSS-8125. DHB will use the Needs Unit field for tracking purposes until the needed system changes can be made. Do not make an entry in the Needs Unit field if the individual is eligible for MQB-Q using SSI budgeting methodology.

D. MQB Family Size Budgeting Computation (Based on Completion of DHB’s Budget Sheet)

1. Complete applicable sections A through D above using SSI budgeting methodology to first establish ineligibility for MAABD/MQB-Q prior to proceeding with Section D.
2. If not eligible for MQB-Q using SSI budgeting methodology, complete Section D of the worksheet to determine if the individual is eligible for MQB-Q, B or E using Family Size Budgeting.

Note: There is no need to apply Family Size budgeting to a Medicaid couple with no children.

a. Indicate whether individual is:

- (1) A Medicaid Individual with an Ineligible Spouse, and/or
- (2) A Medicaid Individual with children in the home for whom their spouse bear financial responsibility, and/or
- (3) Medicaid Couple with children in the home for whom their spouse bear financial responsibility.

- b. For the income calculation, include countable income of the a/b and any family member who is financially responsible for the a/b.
- c. Unearned Income - Enter total GROSS unearned income on Line 1.
- d. On Line 2 subtract the $20 General Exclusion unless the income is VA Pension.
- e. Enter the Net Unearned income on Line 3 (Line 1 minus Line 2). Go to Line 11 if no earned income.
- f. Earned Income - Enter total gross earned income on Line 4. (For certain incomes this is the amount after operational expenses.)
- g. On Line 5 subtract remainder of the $20 General Exclusion if any not used by unearned income. If there is only earned income, subtract the $20 from earned income.
- h. Line 6 is the subtotal of earned income (Line 4 minus Line 5).
- i. On Line 7 subtract the $65 work expense exclusion from earned income.
- j. Enter the subtotal on Line 8 (Line 6 minus Line 7).
- k. On Line 9 subtract 1/2 of Line 8.
- l. The result on Line 10 is the Net Earned Income (Line 8 minus Line 9).
- m. The amount on Line 11 is the Total Net (countable) Income (Line 3 plus Line 10).
- n. On Line 12 enter the income maintenance amount corresponding to the applicable Needs Unit (see chart below) for the aid program or categories in which eligibility is being evaluated (MQB-Q/B/E).
- o. Enter excess income on line 13 (Line 11 minus line 12).

VI. RESOURCE RESPONSIBILITY

There are two different methods to calculate reserve for an a/b based on the rules for determining financial responsibility. One method counts the total resources of the Medicaid Individual, Medicaid Couple or Medicaid Individual with an Ineligible Spouse. The second method "deems" or indirectly counts a portion of a financially responsible parent(s)'s resources as available to the Medicaid child.

A. Counting the resources of the Medicaid Individual, Medicaid Couple or Medicaid Individual with an Ineligible Spouse

1. Determine financial responsibility as appropriate for the a/b based on the criteria in II. above.
2. Based on financial responsibility that is established for the a/b, count resources as follows:
 - a. If the a/b is a "Medicaid Individual":
 - (1) Count the resources available to the a/b only to determine reserve eligibility.
 - (2) Use the reserve limit for one (see VII. for income/reserve limits).
 - b. If the a/b is a "Medicaid Couple" or a "Medicaid Individual with an Ineligible Spouse":
 - (1) Count the total combined resources of both spouses to determine reserve eligibility.
 - (2) Use the reserve limit for a couple (see VII. for income/reserve limits).

NOTE: Exclude private retirement accounts, i.e., IRA or KEOGH owned by the ineligible spouse.
 - c. If the a/b is a "Medicaid Child":
 - (1) Deem a portion of the financially responsible parent(s) resources to the a/b to determine reserve eligibility. See VI.B. below for reserve deeming instructions.
 - (2) Use the resource limit for one.

B. RESERVE DEEMING PROCEDURES AND COMPUTATIONS

Deem resources of a parent(s) to a "Medicaid Child" (parents not receiving SSI, AAF or CAP).

1. If only one parent is living in the household:
 - a. Determine the parent's countable resources.
 - b. Subtract the individual resource limit from the parent's countable resources (see VII. for income/reserve limits).
 - c. Deem the excess from 1.A., above to the eligible child(ren).
 - (1) If there is only one child in the household who is applying for or receiving M-AABD/M-QB, deem all of the excess resources of the parent to that child.
 - (2) If there is more than one child in the household who is applying for or receiving M-AABD/M-QB, divide the excess resources of the parent equally among those children.
 - (3) There is no exclusion from the parent's resources for children in the household who are not applying for or receiving M-AABD/M-QB.
 - d. Add the reserve deemed from the parent to the child's countable resources to determine the child's total countable reserve. Compare this amount to the reserve limit for one.
 - e. Do not deem parent's resources when an M-AABD/M-QB child is defined as a "Medicaid Individual."
2. If two parents live in the household:
 - a. Determine the parents' total countable resources.
 - b. Subtract the couple resource limit from the combined resources of both parents (see VII. for income/reserve limits).
 - c. Deem the amount of excess reserve from 2.b., above to the eligible child(ren).
 - (1) If there is only one child in the household who is applying for or receiving M-AABD/M-QB, deem all of the excess resources of the parents to that child.

- (2) If there is more than one child in the household who applying for or receiving M-AABD/M-QB, divide the excess resources of the parents equally among those children.
 - (3) There is no exclusion from the parents' resources for children in the household who are not applying for or receiving M-AABD/M-QB
- d. Add the reserve deemed from the parents to the child's countable resources to determine the child's total countable reserve compare this amount to the reserve limit for one.
